Computop Analytics EN

Analytics

Computop Analytics is an online application (hereinafter "application") which allows you to view all your payment processes (purchases) with the associated payment transactions (individual process steps of a process, e.g. (pre-) authorization, capture, refund, etc.). You can also create new payment processes and add payment transactions to existing payments. You also have access to graphical dashboards and can export your payment data.

Analytics Documentation

Computop Analytics